B. World Factbook Production: Final proofs are being prepared prior to printing the 1983 version of the World Factbook. The number of copies requested this year will total 16,128, and because of this large volume, completion is not expected until the latter part of June.

C. Joint Publications Research Service (JPRS) Meeting: Representatives from P&PD met with representatives from JPRS to discuss future plans for printing JPRS reports and possible P&PD involvement. Agreement was reached on a two phased approach for addressing JPRS requirements. Phase I will entail a joint feasibility study on P&PD's assumption of JPRS printing support. Phase II will encompass the electronic handling and manipulation of data used for the publication of JPRS reports. This phase will require extensive evaluation by JPRS.
